PLAYING FOR CHAMPIONSHIPS

Maryland has won five NCAA Championships, the second-most of any school in the country, winning back-to-back titles in 2005 and 2006. Making 21 postseason appearances, 20 in the NCAA Tournament, the Terps have been in contention for the crown numerous times, advancing to the national semifinals 12 times and the title game seven times. Maryland was in the semifinals of the NCAA Tournament four straight years from 2003-06.

1 :: 1987 NCAA Champions • Maryland wins its first NCAA Championship in 1987, defeating North Carolina, 2-1. The game marked head coach Sue Tyler's last at the Terrapin helm.

2 :: Six years later, the Terps capture their second title in 1993, the first under head coach Missy Meharg. They defeated North Carolina, again, 2-1, in penalty strokes.

3 :: It took another six years for Maryland to hoist the national championship trophy, winning the 1999 championship with a 2-1 win over Michigan in Boston, Mass.

4 :: It seemed to be fate. Six years after winning the program's third national crown, Maryland claimed its fourth, shutting out Duke, 1-0, in Louisville, Ky.

5 :: The Terps break its six-year "jinx," successfully defending their national title and capturing the program's fifth overall and fourth under head coach Missy Meharg. Maryland defeated Wake Forest on its home field, 1-0.

In addition, Maryland has been crowned ACC Champions six times, all coming under Meharg. The Terps won four in a row from 1998-2001. Its last title was won on Maryland's home field in 2005.

THE WHITE HOUSE

The 1987 team holds the distinction of being the first field hockey national champions to be honored at the White House, visiting President Ronald Reagan. Maryland went on to meet Presidents Bill Clinton and George W. Bush.

THE COACHES

6 :: Legendary coach Sue Tyler mentored the Terps from 1974-1987, winning over 150 games and capturing Maryland's first national championship in 1987. She is the only DI-A coach to win national titles in two sports (women's lacrosse and field hockey)

7 :: Hired as an assistant coach in 1985 by Tyler, Missy Meharg was promoted to head coach in 1988. She became Maryland's all-time winningest coach in 1998 and has logged over 300 victories in her 20-year tenure. She has led the Terps to four NCAA titles and all six ACC crowns.

8 :: Meharg's first team in 1988 marked the beginning of a new era and a continued tradition of excellence.

HONDA AWARD

The Honda Award is presented to the nation's most outstanding field hockey player. Two Terrapins have earned the sport's highest honor in the history of the program.

1 :: Autumn Welsh was Maryland field hockey's first recipient of the prestigious honor in 2002.

2 :: The most decorated player in Maryland field hockey history, Paula Infante became the second Honda Award winner in the program's history in 2005, then earned the honor again in 2006. In 2006, she went on to become one of the top-five finalists for the coveted Honda-Broderick Cup, given to the NCAA's Collegiate Woman Athlete of the Year.

NATIONAL RECOGNITION

In the Terrapins 34-year history, 44 players have earned 78 All-American citations, including 74 under 20-year head coach Missy Meharg. Of the 44 Terps, five were selected All-Americans each of their four years:

2 :: Paula Infante - the only Terrapin to be named first team All-American all four years from 2003-05; 3 :: Lauren Powley (2002-05); 4 :: Carla Tagliente (1997-2000); 5 :: Kim Turner (1985-1988).

NATIONAL COACH OF THE YEAR

6 :: Missy Meharg has been selected the National Coach of the Year an unprecedented six times (1991, 1993, 1999, 2001, 2005, 2006).

OFF THE FIELD

7 :: Legendary Maryland men's basketball coach Gary Williams participated in a ceremonial pass-back prior to the start of a regular-season game.

8 :: Missy Meharg and the newly-elected Governor of Maryland Martin O'Malley. The national champions are the first team under Governor O'Malley's tenure invited to the Governor's House.

9 :: Numerous players return to College Park every year to play in the Terps' annual Alumni Game, which is played at the state-of-the-art Field Hockey & Lacrosse Complex.

10 :: The Terrapins look forward to the team's yearly End-of-the-Year Banquet where the players, coaches, staff, families, friends and alumni gather to recap the season, honor the senior class and enjoy delicious food.

11 :: Emily Trycinski is among the numerous field hockey student-athletes to graduate with a degree from Maryland. In 2007, the Terps received the NFHCA's Team Award for achieving a team grade point average of at least 3.0. Seven were named to the National Academic Squad.

TERRAPINS ON NATIONAL TEAMS

THE TERRAPINS HAVE LONG BEEN A PIPELINE TO THE U.S. NATIONAL AND JUNIOR NATIONAL TEAMS. FIVE TERPS ARE CURRENTLY ON THE U.S. NATIONAL TEAM, WHILE MANY OTHERS HAVE BEEN MEMBERS OF NATIONAL SQUADS FROM OTHER COUNTRIES, INCLUDING CURRENT CHILEAN NATIONAL TEAM MEMBER AND TWO-TIME HONDA AWARD WINNER PAULA INFANTE.

FIELD HOCKEY & LACROSSE COMPLEX

The premier state-of-the-art Field Hockey & Lacrosse Complex seats 1,400 spectators and meets the highest standards of the F.I.H., field hockey's international governing body. Opened in 2003, Phase I of construction of the fan-friendly facility featured a high-performance, water-based nylon Astroturf 12 playing surface and a remote watering system. Phase II and III of the project were completed in October 2005, which included the completion of a full concourse-level plaza with permanent restrooms, concession areas, team locker rooms, team meeting room, training room and an equipment storage area.

HIGH-LEVEL COMPETITION

Field hockey fans have been treated to the best field hockey this country has to offer at the Field Hockey & Lacrosse Complex, hosting U.S. Field Hockey's Four Nation Tournament where the U.S. upset Argentina in 2006, ACC Championships and NCAA Tournament games. In 2007, the U.S. Team hosted a series vs. Japan in October. The field also served as the site of the semifinals and championship games of the 2007 NCAA Tournament, the first time the championship round was held in the state of Maryland.

FAN SUPPORT

The field hockey faithful have supported the National Champion Terrapins throughout the season. Maryland led the nation in average and total home attendance in 2007.

SEASON OUTLOOK

TERPS LOOK TO VETERANS TO LEAD TEAM IN 2008

The 2007 campaign looked to be another year of destiny for the Terrapins after coming off back-to-back National Championships in 2005 and 2006, the core of the team returning, the addition of highly-talented freshmen and the "Final Four" taking place at the Field Hockey & Lacrosse Complex, their home field. But Maryland fell one game shy of the final weekend, however, and was reminded of what it missed out on watching the national championship from the stands and not from the field. It was the first time in five years the Terps did not advance to the national semifinals.

"Our players, staff and program were proud to host our first NCAA Championship games," said head coach Missy Meharg, who celebrated her 20 years on the Maryland sidelines last season. "We fell short, losing to Penn State, and it was a humbling experience to have this event on our home field, but we learned valuable lessons. The players acted with such pride throughout the weekend and realized the true sense of not taking things for granted. From this we have grown, regrouped and taken ownership of what we need to do to succeed in the postseason."

The new calendar year has seen a rejuvenated Terrapin squad. Spring workouts and competitions have been ramped up with players taking advantage of the opportunity to improve and build on what was learned the previous season. Maryland returns almost every player from last year's team, 15 in all. Of the 15 returning letterwinners, a core group of juniors and seniors were members of the '05 and '06 national championship teams.

Maryland will miss its two major losses in midfielder Janneke van Leeuwen and goalkeeper Kathryn Masson, both All-Americans. Also graduating was Kim Ziegler, a workhorse on the field on the forward line. However, among those the Terps welcome back are Honda Award finalist Katie O'Donnell, a member of the U.S. National Team, veteran defender and two-time All-American Susie Rowe and 2006 All-American Nicole Muracco.

Maryland will turn up the excitement in 2008. The Terps will play with flair, energy and excitement from baseline to baseline with the entire team getting involved in the offense. Look for a high-paced, high-scoring brand of play as Maryland looks to make a return to the national semifinals in Louisville, Ky., where they won the program's fourth national title in 2005.

ATTACK

Maryland was among the top three in the nation in offense a year ago and the unit returns intact. O'Donnell arrived on campus as a freshman and hit the ground running. The U.S. National Team member led the nation in points per game (2.52), while ranking fourth in goals (0.86) and assists per game (0.81). She was a Honda Award finalist and an All-American, while also becoming the first-ever Terrapin to win an ACC player of the year honor as a freshman, being tabbed the conference's Offensive Player of the Year.

"Katie brings a more fierce scoring-minded style of play," Meharg said. "She had a great first year, but she's learned some new tricks while with the national team for half the year."

Muracco is another All-American returning to the forward line. Now a junior, she followed up an ACC Rookie of the Year campaign with an almost equally impressive sophomore season, using finesse around the cage to score goals. As a junior, however, she brings a more complete game, which includes playmaking, as well as a scoring knack.

Senior Sarah Scholl enters her final campaign as a Terrapin and has been a model of consistency on the forward line. Her workhorse mentality will set the example for the underclassmen as they adjust to the Maryland system. A bright student-athlete, earning national and conference academic honors every season, she has worked on her shot selection to complement her dishing mentality.

Sophomore Meghan Dean, a member of the U.S. Under-21 team, will make her way back to the forward line where she was a high school All-American. Classmate Mary Reilly saw limited playing time last season but has a powerful shot and has improved her confidence on the field. Also joining the Terrapins on the forward line is Cornelia Duffin who brings size and power to the front line, and Brigitte Strother, a local product from nearby Annapolis, Md., who has a high workrate with a scoring mentality.

MIDFIELD

Transition play will be a key for the Terps in 2008, which will steer the high-powered attack Maryland plans to implement. A big loss for the midfield unit is van Leeuwen, who was a cog in the lineup for four seasons. However, the core of Ameliet Rischen, Alexis Pappas and Kristina Foster, all juniors, and senior Danielle Keeley, are interchangeable on the line.

Rischen returns as a two-year starter in the midfield, earning NFHCA Mid-Atlantic All-Region honors as a sophomore. Hailing from the Netherlands, she focused on strength training in the spring and continues to develop in that area.

Pappas has settled into a role in the midfield after making the move from the forward unit as a sophomore. She, along with Rischen, has worked on releasing the ball quickly and keeping the tempo of the game moving.

Foster has outstanding technical skills, but the spark she provides coming off the bench can not be quantified. She brings terrific energy that is contagious and works hard the entire time on the field.

Incoming freshman Michelle Lane has played defense primarily in her career, but will be moved to the midfield unit to have more opportunities to get more involved on the field and develop her skills.

BACKFIELD

Maryland's outstanding defense returns every key starter in 2008. The Terps have a veteran unit that boasts a lot of experience. The strength of the team begins in the backfield, which will be the key to generating the high-paced tempo the Terps are looking for this season.

"There is a tremendous amount of seniority in the backfield in Susie Rowe, Ellen Ott, Brianna Davies and Alicia Grater," said Meharg. "We have a tremendous amount of confidence in that group."

Anchoring the backfield will be Rowe, a two-time All-American who has combined toughness with skill in her three years as a starter on the Maryland defense. She helped the backfield rank third in the nation in team goals against average. She also has a prowess on offense as a stalwart on the penalty corner unit. Last season, she was tied for second on the team in goals scored, tallying career-highs in every offensive category – goals (14), assists (6) and points (34).

Ott also became a force on defense last season, earning a starting role. She went on to earn her first regional honor, receiving second team Mid-Atlantic All-Region recognition. Davies has started every game on defense since arriving on campus and was an all-region pick as a freshman. Her speed is unrivaled and has begun to understand how to use it to her advantage.

Also bringing physical strength to the backfield is Alicia Morawski, who is a natural ice hockey player. A junior on the playing field, she has three seasons of experience under her belt with the Terps after redshirting her freshman campaign. She will compete for a spot in the rotation as her skills have continued to improve in the offseason.

SUSIE ROWE

Entering her second season, Amanda Himmelheber is also a defensive starter returning to the lineup. A lefty, she has solid intercepting skills with her backhand and is also another physically strong player for the Terps.

GOALKEEPERS

The biggest change will be in the loss of Kathryn Masson, a three-time All-American goalkeeper who left Maryland ranked in the top five in several career and single-season school records. However, looking to pick up where she left off are Alicia Grater and Melissa Vassalotti, while incoming freshman Brittany Dipper will look to compete for some playing time, as well.

"We were fortunate to have two outstanding goalies over the last couple of years," said Meharg. "Kat was certainly a terrific talent and was our 'go-to' in the cage. But Alicia has proven through practices and the minutes she has earned in games that she is more than capable of taking over the reins."

While she will be a junior on the playing field, Grater has already been with the squad for three seasons, after redshirting her freshman campaign. She has played behind Masson for three years and became a solid goalkeeper. Now with Masson graduated, Grater will be called upon to take on the leadership position and bring along the younger goalies in Vassalotti and Dipper.

The defensive unit has also shown through the spring competition the utmost respect and confidence with their new general in the cage.

Vassalotti redshirted her freshman year and learned valuable lessons, while also continuing to improve her goaltending skills. Dipper is a "throw back" to the days of two-sport athletes in college. Signing a National Letter of Intent to play for the Maryland lacrosse squad, she will play with the field hockey team in the fall.

SCHEDULE

Maryland's non-conference schedule features teams from seven different conferences, while also competing in the nation's top field hockey conference in the ACC.

After opening the season at Lock Haven on Aug. 31, Maryland plays three teams from the Big Ten in the next five-game stretch. Four of its six games during the first half of September are against teams that were ranked in the top 15 in the final coaches poll of 2007, including national finalist Penn State.

"With the way the schedule is constructed, we will know within the first few weeks of the season where we're at. These are early markers before we get into the heart of the season and begin the ACC slate."

In just the second game of the campaign, the Terps travel to play the Nittany Lions for the first time since 1995. Maryland will look to avenge its 2007 NCAA Tournament loss to PSU in the second round, ending the Terps' streak of four-straight year national semifinal appearances.

The Terps open the home season on Sept. 5 with Old Dominion, a rivalry which continues to grow with every passing season. It is also the opening game of the home-and-home series between the teams, with the second matchup coming on Oct. 16 in Norfolk, Va. The teams met three times last year, with Maryland sweeping all three games, including an NCAA Tournament clash.

After hosting the Lady Monarchs, the Terps travel to Michigan on Sept. 7 to close out the weekend. The last two games between the teams have been decided in overtime.

Maryland returns home to host the Terrapin Invitational, featuring the Big East's Syracuse, the Big 10's Northwestern, Patriot League champion American and Delaware from the CAA. The Orange burst onto the field hockey scene last year. It is the first meeting between the teams since 2001.

In the two-day event on Sept. 13 and 14, the Terrapins will take on Syracuse on the first day, then the Wildcats on the second day. AU will play NU on the second day, while the Blue Hens take on Syracuse in the closing game of the tournament on day two.

After taking a sneak peak at the Eagles at the Terrapin Invitational, AU visits the Field Hockey & Lacrosse Complex a few days later on Sept. 17. Already boasting the best fans in the nation, this matchup has drawn one of the best crowds of the season as the rivalry continues to strengthen.

Following that game, Maryland opens ACC play with four of its league games coming in the next five games. Boston College makes a visit on Sept. 20, followed by a trip to Wake Forest on Sept. 27. The Demon Deacons bounced Maryland out of the ACC Tournament in the semifinals and the Terps are looking for revenge.

After Maryland hosts Richmond on Sept. 28, a short trip to Virginia is on tap on Oct. 4, with the stretch coming to a close on Oct. 11 against Duke at home.

Maryland will then take on the Ivy League's best in back-to-back games on Oct. 12 and Oct. 14. Penn comes back to College Park for the first time in three years, then the Terps head to league champion Princeton.

The final road contest is at ODU, followed by three-straight home games to end the season. Delaware returns for its matchup with Maryland on Oct. 17. The 2007 National Champion Tar Heels are the last ACC foe on the slate. North Carolina will come for an exciting matchup on Oct. 25.

The final regular-season game is against VCU on Oct. 30. The evening will also feature the annual Senior Night as the Terps will play tribute to the senior class that evening.

The ACC Tournament, always an exciting precursor to the national tournament, will be hosted by Duke on Nov. 6, 7 and 8 in Durham, N.C. Maryland will look to make a better showing this season and vie for its seventh conference crown.

The NCAA Tournament begins Nov. 15 and 16 at campus sites, while the national semifinals and championship games will be hosted by the University of Louisville. Should the Terps make it to the last weekend, it will bring back fond memories of the team's 2005 title run, when they won the title on that field.

HEAD COACH MISSY MEHARG

21ST SEASON AT MARYLAND • DELAWARE '85
SIX-TIME NATIONAL COACH OF THE YEAR

Head coach Missy Meharg has dedicated 20 years to the Maryland field hockey program, building a program rich with a winning tradition. Voted National Coach of the Year an unprecedented six times. Meharg has exemplified the tradition of excellence Maryland field hockey has become known for, winning five National Championships and six ACC Championships, solidifying the Terps' position among the top programs in the nation.

With a firm grasp on the national top five for at least a decade, the team has reached the national semifinals 10 times, including four years in a row from 2003-06, a first for the program. Maryland has also advanced to the national championship game six times under the legendary coach.

Competing in the toughest conference in the nation, Meharg has also mentored the Terps to six ACC Tournament titles and five regular season crowns. Her teams have also won 20 games in six seasons, including three in the last five years.

Despite all the successes, Meharg has not slowed in her efforts to lure top talent to College Park and mentor them to success. Her players have garnered three Honda Awards, presented to the nation's most outstanding player, 74 All-Americans, eight ACC Players of the Year, six ACC Rookies of the Year, eight ACC Tournament MVP's, 73 All-ACC performers and over 100 National Academic Squad honorees.

Meharg has developed 40 Terrapins who have reached the highest level of field hockey, with 40 players competing internationally, including five players who are members of the 2008 U.S. National Team.

Meharg can be described as a leader, a motivator and a mentor. Her six National Field Hockey Coaches Association National Coach of the Year citations are unmatched by any coach in the country. She became the winningest coach at Maryland in 1998, surpassing her mentor Sue Tyler's 153 victories. Entering the 2008 season, she needs just five victories for 350 for her career, ranking her among the top 10 winningest coaches in NCAA history across all divisions.

Accolades have come in the form of six NFHCA Coach of the Year awards (1991, 1993, 1999, 2001, 2005, 2006), four ACC Coach of the Year honors (1992, 1995, 1998, 2001) and 11 Mid-Atlantic Regional Coach of the Year citations. Meharg captured her 300th-career win on the day the Terps defeated Wake Forest for the program's sixth conference title in College Park and is one of six Division I head coaches to win over 300 games.

Though Meharg's numbers are extraordinary, her leadership is much more. An educator through sport, she recognizes the ability of athletic competition to teach life lessons. The mentor emphasizes the characteristics of sports that can be used as a vehicle to develop a meaningful life.

"Establishing a hard working, compassionate environment which assists to teach women in 'becoming' confident female leaders through their roles as a member of the Maryland field hockey team," says Meharg. "Coaching with enthusiasm, building a community and establishing a mindset of service models the ultimate success."

During her tenure at Maryland, she has been involved in all facets of collegiate field hockey. She currently serves on the NCAA Mid-Atlantic Regional Advisory Committee. In 1996, Meharg served as an assistant coach as former Terp All-American Kate Kauffman-Beach and the U.S. squad competed in the Olympic Games in Atlanta.

The Terps have been represented in the Olympics, the Pan American Games, the World Cup, the Olympic Qualifying Tournament and a number of other international competitions. Four Terrapins mentored by Meharg will represent the United States at the 2008 Olympics in Beijing, China, including veteran national team members Keli Smith, Dina Rizzo and Lauren Powley, while Sarah Silvetti was named an alternate. Meharg was an assistant on the 1994 national team that won a bronze medal at the World Cup. Terrapins have also represented several countries in international competitions, including two-time Honda Award winner Paula Infante, who is a member of the Chilean National Team.

Meharg is an accomplished and experienced coach on the international stage. She was a member of the U.S. National Team's coaching staff from 1993-1997, which included her appearance in the 1996 Olympics, the 1994 World Cup in Dublin, Ireland, and the 1995 Pan American Games in Argentina. In 1994 and 1995, she served as the head coach for the U.S. Under-21 team. After a hiatus, she returned to the U.S. Field Hockey elite level program in 2004, coaching on both the senior and junior national team selection programs. She was named head coach of the Maryland High Performance Center, establishing the Field Hockey & Lacrosse Complex as an east coast national training site. She currently serves as general manager of the Thundersticks, which won the USFHA National Championship in 2006.

DID YOU KNOW?

- Since the NFHCA began recognizing the National Coach of the Year in 1990, Missy Meharg's six awards are the most for any coach at the college level.
- Leading the Terps to four NCAA titles, Missy Meharg is one of just five coaches in Division I history to have won multiple national championships in field hockey.
- In December of 2007, Meharg received Level III certification from the USFHA, its highest coaching accreditation.

During her career, Meharg has been extensively involved with teaching in the U.S. Field Hockey Association Coaching Certification Program. She is among an elite group who received Level III certification in December 2007, the USFHA's highest coaching accreditation and the first of its kind. She has completed several other certification programs which are directed by the Federation of International Hockey (F.I.H.). Meharg enjoyed doing color commentary work for television and has worked a variety of sports, including field hockey. She has completed seven instructional field hockey coaching video with Championship Productions.

Meharg's collegiate playing career was nearly as successful as her coaching career is now. She was an All-America forward at the University of Delaware, where she also played lacrosse, from 1981-85. Meharg was a Honda Award nominee in field hockey in 1983, the same year she was named MVP of the East Coast Conference after leading her team in goals, assists and points. The Blue Hen hockey team reached the NCAA Championship semifinal round when she was a sophomore in 1982, and Meharg's lacrosse squad won the national championship the following spring.

Meharg enjoyed an impressive seven-year playing career with the U.S. National Team from 1985-91. During that time, she was a member of the 1986 World Cup team and an alternate to the 1987 Pan American and 1988 Olympic teams. She capped her playing career as a member of the 1991 Pan American team and the 1991 U.S. squad that unfortunately missed qualifying for the 1992 Olympics in Barcelona.

Meharg earned a bachelor's degree in health and physical education from Delaware in 1985 and her master's degree in sports psychology from Maryland in 1989. She is the mother of two sons: 17-year old Andre, who is a high school senior and plays lacrosse at a boarding school, and 16-year old Genya, a sophomore at Severna Park High School and a member of the school's soccer and tennis teams.

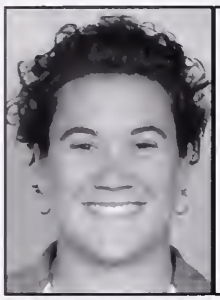
WELSH & INFANTE WIN HONDA AWARD

In 2001, defensive back Autumn Welsh became the first athlete under Missy Meharg to be recognized as the national player of the year. Welsh was named the recipient of the prestigious Honda Award, marking the first time in Maryland field hockey history that a Terps attained the honor.

After leading the Terps to back-to-back NCAA Championships in 2005 and 2006, defensive midfielder Paula Infante earned the honor both years, becoming only the third field hockey player in the history of the award to win it multiple times. Infante went on to be a top-five finalist for the coveted Honda-Broderick Cup, presented to the NCAA's Collegiate Woman Athlete of the Year across all sports.

Infante (2005, 06), Welsh (2001) and women's lacrosse standout Jen Adams (2000, 2001) are the only Honda Award recipients in Maryland athletics history.

COACHING STAFF



MARYBETH FREEMAN

Associate Head Coach
6th Season at Maryland
Old Dominion '03

Associate head coach Marybeth Freeman has been on the Terrapin sidelines for some of the most successful years in Maryland field hockey as she enters her sixth season. After the Terps captured titles in 2005 and 2006, she was elevated to her current position after spending four seasons as an assistant coach on Missy Meharg's staff.

Among her many responsibilities, Freeman is responsible for developing Maryland's goalkeeping unit, which produced three-time All-American Kathryn Masson. Masson led the nation in goals against average twice, while ranking in the top five in her final three years from 2005-08. Masson was the first-ever Terp to be honored as a first-team All-American in the history of the program and left ranking in the top five in three career statistical category at Maryland, including finishing with the second-best GAA in school history (0.94).

"Marybeth is unquestionably a top collegiate and national coach," said head coach Missy Meharg. "She is determined, hard working, knowledgeable and exceedingly organized. She has found the coaching balance for each woman to perform to their potential."

The deep defense also falls under the tutelage of the 2003 Old Dominion graduate. En route to Maryland's 2006 national championship, the Terps posted a school record-tying 12 shutouts. The backfield has been ranked in the top five in GAA four times in her five years, including ranking third in the nation in 2007.

Aside from developing the Terrapin goalkeepers, Freeman also oversees the Terps' academic affairs, NCAA compliance, travel arrangements and recruiting efforts.

A two-time All-CAA pick and a four-year starter for the Lady Monarchs, Freeman was an integral part of a team that posted an 81-17 (.827) record in her collegiate career, capturing the Colonial Athletic Association crown every year and posted an impressive 1.17 career goals against average.

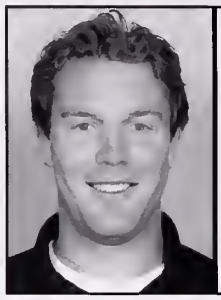
In 2000 as a sophomore, Freeman was selected to the NCAA All-Tournament team, helping ODU win its ninth national crown, and, as a senior, the netminder led her squad back to the NCAA semifinals.

Freeman is one of the few field hockey coaches in the nation to produce instructional videos. "Becoming a Champion Goalkeeper," produced in 2003 by Championship Productions, targets goalkeepers and aspiring goalkeeping coaches.

Freeman has been involved with the United States Field Hockey Association Futures program for both Maryland and New Jersey. She serves as site director and head goalkeeping coach at the University of Maryland, while also being head goalkeeping coach for New Jersey. She plays a role in coaching the goalkeepers and the defense for the Maryland Thundersticks of the USFHA Elite Performance Training Center.

A native of Holland, Pa., Freeman attended Council Rock High School where she had a school-record 19 shutouts as a senior, while also captaining her team to three Suburban League Championship titles.

Freeman graduated from ODU with a bachelor's degree in health and physical education, She was a four-time NFHCA National Academic Squad honoree and a CAA Scholar-Athlete. She recently earned her master's in education from the University of Maryland in May 2008, graduating with a 3.82 GPA.



TJERK VAN HERWAARDEN

Technical Director/Coach
4th Season at Maryland
HES '97

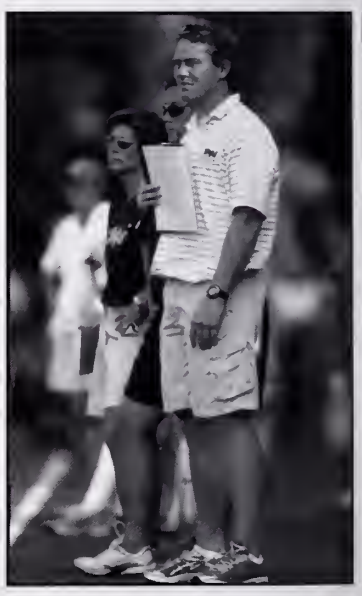
Looking forward to his fourth season at Maryland, Tjerk van Herwaarden came to College Park in the height of the Terps success, joining the staff in 2005 as an assistant coach, helping the team capture back-to-back national titles. He was then named the team's Technical Director/Coach in 2007.

"Tjerk has had an incredible impact on the Terps, as we captured back-to-back NCAA titles in 2005 and 2006," said head coach Missy Meharg. "His patience and ability to read tactical adjustments are major strengths. His game knowledge is not only evident in training sessions but also in video work and fundamental teaching sessions."

A native of the Netherlands, van Herwaarden has extensive coaching experience and knowledge of field hockey having served as an assistant coach, head coach and technical director at every level over the last decade.

Most recently, his experience and knowledge has been called upon by the U.S. National Field Hockey program, serving as an assistant coach with the U.S. men's national team since 2006, traveling to the 2007 Pan American games and the Olympic Qualifying tournament in Auckland, New Zealand in 2008. He has also coached the women's U16 team in 2006, traveling to his home country, and the U19 team in Argentina in 2007.

Along with working with the U.S. men's team, van Herwaarden was also selected head coach of the USFHA's High Performance Thundersticks squad in 2007. He led the team to the 2006 USFHA national championship.



Prior to joining the Terps, van Herwaarden served as head coach of the Gooische women's team 2nd Division in the Netherlands, considered to have the best field hockey competition in the world, since 2003. His main focus was on development of technical and tactical skills.

From 1999-2003, van Herwaarden was an assistant coach of the Kampong 1st Ladies club team, leading them to the semifinals of the National Championship in back-to-back years. While with the team, he mentored some of the country's top field hockey players who went on to win a silver medal at the Athens Olympics and are currently members of the Dutch National team.

Van Herwaarden has devoted much of his time teaching the sport of field hockey. He was coach for the KNHB, the Royal Dutch field hockey association, youth development program for five years and was a coach conductor for the same organization, planning course programs and the educational structure for coursework related to the sport.

Van Herwaarden is the owner and co-founder of Worldcamp USA, which runs Dutch field hockey camps in the United States, and also serves as technical director. He has been a clinician for eight years at the National Field Hockey Festival and is a KNHB Level A and B licensed coach. He has been a guest speaker at the NFHCA's national coaches convention several times and eared a Level III certification, the highest coaching accreditation by the USFHA, in the fall of 2008.

Van Herwaarden was also an account manager for SNS Bank in the Netherlands dating back to 1999 until leaving his post to come to Maryland. He earned a business economics degree at HES, the college for economics in Amsterdam, in 1997.

PAULA INFANTE

Undergraduate Assistant Coach
2nd Season at Maryland
Maryland

The most decorated player in the history of the program, two-time Honda Award winner Paula Infante returns for her second season as an undergraduate assistant coach. A four-time All-American, Infante helped the Terps to its most successful four-year span, which included back-to-back NCAA Championship titles in 2005 and 2006, and an ACC crown.

"Maryland is fortunate Paula aspires to graduate with two degrees and coach this year with this young Terrapin team," said head coach Missy Meharg. "Her team play, coupled with world-class athleticism, will lift the daily training session to that of championship level."

Only the second Terrapin to win the Honda Award, presented to the nation's top field hockey player, Infante's mark on the program can be seen all over the record books.

Infante logged many firsts while wearing the Maryland uniform. The only player in the program to receive the Honda Award twice, she was also the first to be named first team All-American four-straight years and the second athlete in a team sport in Maryland Athletics history to garner first team honors four times, as well. She is also the only four-time All-NCAA Tournament honoree.

Infante is also the only Terp in Maryland field hockey history to win a conference player of the year award multiple times, garnering ACC Defensive Player of the Year nods twice in the first three years of the honor.

The four-time All-ACC performer led Maryland to four-consecutive NCAA Tournament semifinals appearances, a first in the history of the program. The Terps also advanced to the ACC finals in her final two seasons, winning the crown in 2005.

Ranked among the all-time Terrapin greats, Infante finished her career in College Park with 58 career goals and 139 career points, tied for fifth and ranked seventh, respectively, all-time. Her 19 goals as a freshman in 2003 is among the single-season most prolific scoring years all-time at Maryland.

Infante even left an imprint in the NCAA record books. Her five goals and 10 points in the first round of the NCAA Tournament versus Delaware were a tournament record. The five tallies also tied the school record for goals in game.

As a defender, Infante's presence in the backfield made it one of the best in the country. The defense was ranked among the top in team goals against average while she was at Maryland, including leading the nation at 0.70 during her senior campaign and ranked second in 2006 (1.01). The Terps recorded 12 shutouts in 2006, tying a school record.

On offense, she was among the top two goal scorers in each of her seasons on the field, leading the team as a freshman and sophomore.

After Maryland's 2005 national championship run, Infante was awarded the ACC's prestigious Mary Garber Award, given to the conference's top female athlete of the year across all sports. She was the Terps' first female honoree since 2001 and the first Terrapin field hockey player.

Completing her degree in physical education and kinesiology, Infante also excelled in the classroom, earning a spot on the NFHCA's National Academic Squad twice and was once an All-ACC Academic honoree. She was also one of 45 athletes in the ACC to receive the Weaver-James-Corrigan Postgraduate Scholarship.

A native of Santiago, Chile, Infante is the mother of seven-year old Agustín. She is a member of the Chilean National Team, where she served as captain and played in three Pan American games and the 2001 World Cup. She recently participated in the 2008 Olympic Qualifier in Baku.

DR. JOEL FISH

Team Consultant
1st Season at Maryland
Clark University

In his first season with the Terrapin field hockey team, Dr. Joel Fish is a nationally recognized expert in sport psychology who has worked in the field for the past twenty years. He has worked extensively with athletes of all ages and skills levels, from youth sport through the Olympic and professional ranks.

"I am thrilled to be working as a sport psychologist with the University of Maryland field hockey team," said Fish. "My goal is to help the players gain the mental edge in order to be successful on and off the playing field."

Fish has been a sport psychology consultant for the Philadelphia Flyers, Philadelphia 76ers, the Philadelphia Phillies Organization, the Philadelphia Charge and the USA Women's National Soccer Team. He has spoken nationwide on sport psychology at over 200 universities and is a popular presenter at a variety of athletic functions.

Fish has been frequently quoted in the Philadelphia and national media, having been featured numerous times on ABC, CNN, ESPN, Fox, HBO, and NBC. In addition, he has been featured on television programs such as NBC's Today Show, HBO's Real Sports with Bryant Gumbel, ESPN's SportsCenter and Outside The Lines. He is currently the Director of The Center For Sport Psychology in Philadelphia. The Center for Sport Psychology, through a variety of unique programs and services, helps individual athletes, coaches and teams to reach their full potential by focusing upon and mastering the mental aspects of sports, fitness, exercise, rehabilitation, and competition.

Fish recently published a book titled "101 Ways to Be a Terrific Sports Parent." Dr. Fish received his B.A. from Clark University, an M.A. from Temple University, and his Ph.D. from the University of Wisconsin-Madison.

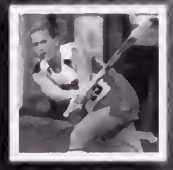
Brigitte Suzanne Strother was born in Annapolis, Md., January 23, 1990.



2007 REVIEW NOTEBOOK

TERPS HAVE ANOTHER SEASON TO REMEMBER

TERPS MAKE 20TH NCAA TOURNAMENT APPEARANCE

After a successful regular season, Maryland earned a 13th-consecutive NCAA Tournament berth, also the Terps' 20th bid in the history of the program. It was also the program's 21st overall (including a 1979 showing in the AIAW Tournament).

Hosting the first and second rounds for the fifth-straight year, Maryland opened with No. 10 Old Dominion, getting past the Lady Monarchs for the third time that season, 5-0. Unfortunately, the Terrapins were bounced in the second round, as Penn State was victorious in a wire-to-wire battle, 1-0.

The Terps' have an enviable NCAA Tournament past, posting a 36-15 record all-time, also winning five National Championships, most recently in 2005 and 2006.

TERPS SET ATTENDANCE RECORDS

Maryland drew three crowds of over 1,000 fans three times in 2007, including an ACC-record (league competitions only) 1,734 on Sept. 22 against Wake Forest. The Terrapins also had a school-record 1,784 come out for their game against Boston University on Oct. 7.

The Terrapins led the nation in total and average attendance. Maryland boasted 692 average fans at 12 home games, beating out North Carolina (537) and Michigan (487). Over 8,300 fans also filled the stands at the Field Hockey & Lacrosse Complex. The next closest were the Tar Heels' 5,914 fans in total attendance.

TWO DECADES OF LEADERSHIP

Head coach Missy Meharg celebrated her 20th season as a head coach and 20th year on the Maryland bench. Meharg was honored for her years of service on Oct. 7 in front of a record-crowd 1,784 fans.

Meharg has been the backbone of the Terps' success over the last 20 seasons, logging 345 career wins, which ranks among the top 10 all-time in NCAA history across all divisions. She has guided her teams to six ACC Tournament crowns and four national championships.

O'DONNELL FINALIST FOR HONDA AWARD, EARNS TOP ACC HONOR

Freshman Katie O'Donnell had a decorated high school career and her first-collegiate season was a reflection of that. After leading the nation with 2.52 points per game, while scoring an ACC-best 18 goals and 53 points, while also leading the squad with 17 assists, O'Donnell was selected a Honda Award top-four finalist. She was also voted the ACC's Offensive Player of the Year, the first Terrapin to garner a league player of the year honor in school history and the first to win the offensive honor since the award was created three years ago.

O'Donnell was also a first team All-American citation by the National Field Hockey Coaches Association and www.womensfieldhockey.com, and was selected the web magazine's National Rookie of the Year. She was also picked ECAC Rookie of the Year.

All-American Janneke van Leeuwen had a breakout season as a senior and ranks fourth all-time at Maryland in career assists.

FOUR TERPS NAMED ALL-AMERICANS

All-American honors, as selected by the National Field Hockey Coaches Association (NFHCA), went to four Terrapins in 2007, including three who were selected to the first team. No other team in the country had three first-team selections.

Junior Susie Rowe and senior Kathryn Masson were repeat selections on the first team, while freshman Katie O'Donnell was also named to the first team. Senior Janneke van Leeuwen received her first-career national accolade, earning a place on the second team.

It was the 17th-consecutive year Maryland has had at least three Terps selected All-Americans and have had at least one since 1985.

IT'S ALL-ACADEMIC, TOO

Posting an impressive 3.30 cumulative team grade point average, Maryland was one of 43 squads to receive the National Field Hockey Coaches Team Award. The Terps' high GPA was due, in large part, to seven members who achieved a 3.0 or better, including All-American Susie Rowe, earning a spot on the NFHCA's National Academic Squad. Joining Rowe are Sarah Scholl, making her third appearance on the team, Alicia Grater, Danielle Keeley, Kim Ziegler, Alicia Morawski and freshman Meghan Dean. Seven Terps also received academic nods from the ACC. Along with Dean, Rowe, Scholl and Ziegler, All-Americans Kathryn Masson and Janneke van Leeuwen, as well as, Mid-Atlantic All-Region pick Ameliet Rischen.

HOME SWEET HOME

The Terps ended the regular-season home slate with a perfect 10-0 mark, the second time in program history the team has swept the home schedule. It was also the third unbeaten home season all time.

Maryland went 9-0 on its home field in 1987 and in 1992, it went 7-0-1 to claim an unbeaten home season. It is the first time since the Terps moved to the Field Hockey & Lacrosse Complex in 2003 they have won every home game in a regular season.

GREAT START!

Maryland's 16-0 start to the season was the best in school history, breaking the previous mark of 12-0 set in 2006.

STREAKING TERPS

Maryland put together a a number of significant streaks in 2007.

The Terps won their first 16 games of the season to open the campaign.The 16-game tear to start the season also extended another win streak which dated back to the 2006 NCAA Tournament, a 20-game tear, one win short of the school record of 21-straight victories.

Freshman Katie O'Donnell also had a significant streak going. She posted at least a point in the Terps' first 10 games of the year.

TERPS IN THE RECORD BOOKS

Before closing their careers in College Park, Terps Kathryn Masson and Janneke van Leeuwen left their marks in the Terrapin record books.

Van Leeuwen dished out 49 career assists as a Terrapin, ranking her in a tie for fourth all-time in the category. Masson can be found all over the goalkeeper records. She ended with a 0.94 career goals against average, second-best all-time and just .03 shy of tying the record. Her 236 saves over four years are fifth-most in the history of the program.

Freshman Katie O'Donnell also made an immediate impact on the record book. Her 17 assists are tied for the seventh-most in a season by a Terp, while her 53 points are eight-most all-time.

GAME 1
AUG. 26, 2007
#1 TERPS 5, CENTRAL MICHIGAN 0

EVANSTON, Ill. - Top-ranked Maryland scored four goals in the second half to put Central Michigan away, 5-0. Freshman Katie O'Donnell had a pair of goals and a pair of assists to pace the two-time NCAA Champion Terps.

Playing in her first-collegiate game, O'Donnell scored an unassisted goal less than two minutes into the game. The score remained, 1-0, in the Terps (1-0) favor until they broke open the game in the 37th minute. Junior Susie Rowe converted on one of Maryland's nine penalty corners, with assists coming from senior Janneke van Leeuwen and O'Donnell.

ACC Rookie of the Year and third team All-American sophomore Nicole Muracco tallied back-to-back goals in the 44th and 58th minutes to pad the lead. O'Donnell assisted on Muracco's second goal.

Two seconds before the game was over, O'Donnell capped the afternoon with the team's fifth goal of the day at 69:58.

The Terps were dominant, attempting 23 shots, while the Chippewas (0-1) only had two. Maryland also had nine penalty corners, shutting out CMU in the category.

Maryland won its season opener for the 11th-straight year. The game also marked the beginning of head coach Missy Meharg's 20th season at the helm.

#1 TERPS 6, NORTHWESTERN 0

EVANSTON, Ill. - No. 1 Maryland closed out its season-opening trip with a second-straight victory, defeating host Northwestern, 6-0. Junior Susie Rowe and freshman Katie O'Donnell each tallied a pair of goals to lead the team to victory. The two-time NCAA Champions are 2-0 on the season, outscoring its opponents, 11-0, over the two games.

The Terps left no room for doubt, scoring four of their six goals in the first half. Sophomore Nicole Muracco, who had two goals in the win against the Chippewas, was the first to score against the Wildcats (1-1) in the sixth minute.

Classmate Ameliet Rischen scored for the first time this season in the 11th minute, getting a hand from senior Janneke van Leeuwen and sophomore Alexis Pappas on the penalty corner.

Another five minutes later and the Terps added to their advantage. Rowe gave Maryland a 3-0 advantage as O'Donnell dished off the pass to Rowe.

O'Donnell, who had a big game against CMU, scoring twice while handing out two assists, got on the board against Northwestern in the 31st minute.

In the second half, it was Rowe and O'Donnell who each scored again, while the defense held on to the shutout and ended the game by the final margin of 6-0.

Maryland peppered the NU goalies with 31 shots, while Wildcat goalkeeper Emily Kyle made 11 saves, with assistance from her team, which posted two more. Terrapins Kathryn Masson and Alicia Grater combined for seven saves in the cage.

#1 TERPS 4, OLD DOMINION 1

NORFOLK, Va. - Two-time NCAA Champion Maryland took care of business for the third-straight game. The top-ranked Terps scored twice in the first half and four in the game to easily defeat sixth-ranked Old Dominion, 4-1.

Old Dominion (0-2) is the first team to score on the Terps this season, doing so in the 48th minute of the game. Other than that, however, it was all Maryland, who remained undefeated at 3-0.

Maryland led 2-0 at the break. The Terps struck early for their first goal of the game. Freshman Katie O'Donnell fed the ball from the top of the circle to sophomore All-American Nicole Muracco nearly five minutes into the contest, giving Maryland a 1-0 lead.

O'Donnell would score the Terps' second goal in the 22nd minute of action. Junior All-American Susie Rowe had a high pass that hit the crossbar of the ODU cage, causing the ball to drop in front of the goal. O'Donnell was positioned perfectly to tap the ball into the open net.

ODU's Jo Ann van Aswegen scored the Lady Monarchs' lone goal off a penalty corner. Teammate Titia Beek received the ball from van Aswegen on the push out and passed it right back, finding the gap in the cage just over 22 minutes into the second half. The goal cut Maryland's lead to 2-1.

But the Terrapins responded, scoring twice in the game's final eight minutes. O'Donnell added her second tally of the evening, collecting a rebound off her own shot and fired off another to score a goal. Sophomore Ameliet Rischen added an insurance tally four minutes later.

O'Donnell and Muracco have scored goals in Maryland's three games, while O'Donnell has scored twice and collected at least one assist in each of the games, as well.

Maryland outshot Old Dominion, 16-4, and outcornered ODU, 6-2.

who scored with 22:37 elapsed. At 24:06, Muracco flipped a shot around Michigan goalkeeper Paige Pickett off of an assist by junior Sarah Scholl to put the Terps up 2-0.

The tables turned in the second half as the Wolverine defense held the Terps scoreless in the second 35 minutes. Meanwhile, Heather Wiley and Kelly Fitzpatrick knocked goals in for the Wolverines to even the score. Wiley put her team on the board 14 minutes into the second period off of a pass from Paige Laytos, followed by Fitzpatrick who tapped in an unassisted tally off her own rebounded shot with eight minutes to spare in regulation.

In the overtime, the teams battled for nearly six and a half minutes before O'Donnell scored on a penalty corner to clinch the victory for Maryland. The goal was her seventh on the season and has netted at least a goal in each of the Terps' first four games. Junior Susie Rowe earned the assist on the play.

The Terps outcornered the Wolverines in the game 5-4, though neither team converted until O'Donnell's game-winning shot. The Terps also outshot their opponents by an astounding 29-13 margin. Most notably, Maryland got off seven shots to Michigan's zero in the extra period.

In the cage, Maryland's senior Kathryn Masson had saved seven, while Michigan's Pickett contributed 12 stops in the full-game effort.

GAME 5
SEPT. 8, 2007
#1 TERPS 4, OHIO STATE 1
TERRAPIN INVITATIONAL

COLLEGE PARK, Md. - No. 1 Maryland toppled Ohio State, 4-1, in the opening game of the Terrapin Invitational. The Terps extended their win streak to nine games, dating back to the 2006 NCAA Tournament.

Junior All-American Susie Rowe scored first for the Terps (5-0) off of a penalty corner and double assists by Katie O'Donnell and Janneke van Leeuwen with less than seven minutes elapsed in the game.

The score remained 1-0 until 24:14 into the first half, when junior Sarah Scholl knocked in her first goal of the season off of a pass by sophomore All-American Nicole Muracco. O'Donnell and van Leeuwen combined again five minutes into the second half to assist junior Ellen Ott's penalty corner goal.

Muracco went on to tally her seventh goal of the season and extend her scoring streak to five-straight games with an unassisted goal off of Ohio State goalie Lindsay Quintiliani's pads at the end of the second half to clinch the victory.

For OSU (2-4), Yesenia Luces drove in the Buckeyes' only goal at the end of the first half. Open in front of the cage, Luces swept in the unassisted goal, her fifth of the season.

Maryland outshot Ohio State, 24-3, and the Terps held the Buckeyes to zero shots in the second half while attempting 14 of their own. Maryland also outcornered OSU, 10-2, and connected on two. In the cage, Quintiliano saved eight shots while allowing four goals for the Buckeyes.

In the second game of the afternoon, American topped Northeastern, 1-0.

SEPT. 9, 2007
#1 TERPS 6, NORTHEASTERN 0
TERRAPIN INVITATIONAL

COLLEGE PARK, Md. – Top-ranked Maryland defeated Northeastern, 4-1, in the final game of the Terrapin Invitational. Terrapins Janneke van Leeuwen and Susie Rowe each had a pair of goals to lift the team over the Huskies.

Maryland begins the season at 6-0 for the sixth-straight season, while the Huskies fall to 1-3. Earlier in the day, American topped Ohio State, 3-1, as six different Eagles earned points in the win.

Freshman Katie O'Donnell and sophomore Brianna Davies started things off for the Terps in the first half, each scoring an unassisted goal. O'Donnell leads Maryland scorers with eight goals and eight assists, scoring in five of the Terps' first six games.

Senior Janneke van Leeuwen and junior All-American Susie Rowe each scored twice in the second half to help Maryland pull away from Northeastern. Van Leeuwen netted both unassisted tallies off the rebounds, while both of Rowe's goals came off of penalty corners.

Northeastern goalie Liz Centofani was bombarded with 28 shots on goal, saving 16. The Maryland defense was equally as dominating, limiting the Huskies to just two shots, which were saved by goalkeepers senior Kathryn Masson and junior Alicia Grater combined efforts in the cage. It is the Terps' third shutout win of the season.

Maryland has never lost a game in the 11 years of the Terrapin Invitational.

#1 TERPS 2, #11 BOSTON COLLEGE 0

CHESTNUT HILL, Mass. – The No. 1 Terps got off to a good start in ACC play, traveling to No. 11 Boston College for the opening conference game of the season. The Terps scored once in each half then kept the Eagles off the board to come away with a 2-0 victory.

Maryland (7-0) took a 1-0 lead in the first half, taking advantage of one if its five penalty corners in the period. In the 13th minute, junior All-American Susie Rowe hammered a shot into the back of the net, with assists coming from freshman Katie O'Donnell and senior Janneke van Leeuwen. It was the 44th assist of van Leeuwen's career, placing her in the top five at Maryland all-time.

The Eagles (5-2) did not have an answer for the Terps, as the teams played evenly for most of the rest of the game. In the 62nd minute, however, sophomore All-American Nicole Muracco knocked in an insurance goal, hitting the top-left corner of the cage to make the score 2-0.

Maryland, who posted its fourth shut out of the season, held the edge in shots, outshooting BC, 11-7, as senior All-American Kathryn Masson made three saves. Her counterpart, Julia Berkowitz made seven in the Eagles' cage. The Terps also outcornered Boston College, 10-3.

The two-time national champion Terps have won their last 11 games, dating back to the start of the 2006 NCAA Tournament.

GAME 8
SEPT. 19, 2007
#1 TERPS 4, #9 AMERICAN 0

WASHINGTON, D.C. - In a battle of undefeated teams, second-ranked Maryland came away unscathed, defeating No. 9 American, 4-0. Four different Terrapins scored in the win despite facing the top goalkeeper in the nation. The Terps remain one of just three undefeated teams in the country.

American's goalkeeper Alyssa Poorman had allowed just four goals in the team's first eight games of the season and boasted the top goals against average in the country. AU (8-1) seemed to be in control from the onset. In the first half, Maryland had just five shots and no penalty corners, but it made the most of its opportunities.

After AU's had a wide shot on a penalty corner 10 minutes into the game, Maryland countered on the restart and broke down field. Freshman Katie O'Donnell sprinted down the sideline and took a running shot from the top of the circle to the opposite post, finding the back of the net, giving Maryland a 1-0 lead. It was the Terps' first shot of the game.

With less than three minutes to go in the period, Maryland again countered on another Eagle penalty corner, causing a breakaway situation for the Terps. Sophomore Nicole Muracco made a long pass to O'Donnell who was unmarked in the shooting circle, causing the goalkeeper to come out of the cage. O'Donnell tried to flick the shot in, but was caught under AU's Poorman and the referee blew the whistle for the penalty stroke. On the stroke, junior Susie Rowe did not falter, giving the Terps a 2-0 cushion.

The second half was more evenly matched, as the teams seem to control the game equal time. The Eagles continued to draw penalty corners, nine in total for the game. But Maryland's backfield, which is also ranked in the top five in the nation, pressured AU on the corners, limiting it to just one shot on its nine attempts.

The Terps added two more goals in the second half to claim the 4-0 win. In the 47th minute, senior Janneke van Leeuwen collected the ball at the top of the circle, squared up and sailed a shot past the goalie for the Terps's third goal. In the 68th minute, Muracco redirected O'Donnell's long shot to the far post, for Maryland's final goal of the day.

Maryland was outshot, 11-10, and outcornered, 9-3, with all three of its corners coming in the second half. Senior Kathryn Masson, who came into the game with the nation's fourth-best goals against average, had three saves, leading the Terps to its fifth shutout of the season. Poorman finished with just one save.

GAME 9
#2 MARYLAND 3, #5 WAKE FOREST 2

COLLEGE PARK, Md. - Second-ranked Maryland edged past ACC-foe and fifth-ranked Wake Forest, 3-2, in front of an ACC record attendance of 1,734 at the Field Hockey & Lacrosse Complex. Terrapin high-scorer freshman Katie O'Donnell scored two unassisted goals, leading the Terps to their 13th-consecutive victory, dating back to the 2006 NCAA Tournament.

In what has turned into the one of the ACC's biggest rivalries, Maryland (9-0, 2-0) never trailed, taking an early lead just over one and a half minutes into the game, 1-0. Despite being covered by two defenders, freshman Katie O'Donnell found an opening between Wake goalkeeper Crystal Duffield's legs and scored the game's first goal.

Exactly four minutes later, the Demon Deacons (5-3, 1-1 ACC) responded. On one of its three first-half penalty corners, Michelle Kasold took a hard shot towards the goal cage and Aileen Davis deflected the ball into the back of the net for the equalizer. It was the first goal the Terps had allowed in nearly 219 minutes, dating back to Sept. 8.

Staples in the Maryland lineup, Janneke van Leeuwen and Kathryn Masson each left their marks in the school record books.

Maryland took advantage of its own penalty corner in the 15th minute on a similar play. After senior Janneke van Leeuwen inserted the ball into play, the shot on the corner came her way and she put her stick down for the deflection. WFU's Duffield made the save, but could not stop van Leeuwen's second shot off the rebound, giving Maryland back the lead, 2-1.

The one-goal advantage would stand until late in the game. With 20 minutes remaining, it was Kasold, again, who would do the damage. A shot from inside the circle was blocked by a Terrapin defender, but the rebound landed in front of her and she knocked it in for the tying goal, 2-2.

After Maryland head coach Missy Meharg called timeout, the Terrapins' intensity seemed to shoot up. Controlling the game down the stretch, the Terps had an opportunity to take the lead on a breakaway and a 3-on-1 situation with the Deac's goalkeeper. Sophomore Ameliet Rischen passed off towards a breaking O'Donnell. But before the pass could get to O'Donnell, sophomore Nicole Muracco touched the ball, slowing down the speed, which O'Donnell was able to better control. Facing only the goalie, O'Donnell faked one way, then took off another way, leaving Duffield behind and finding a wide open cage for the eventual game-winning tally.

Maryland has had four attendance's over 1,000 since the Field Hockey & Lacrosse Complex opened four years ago. The previous ACC record was 1,306 when Maryland hosted Wake Forest in the 2005 ACC Championship game, which the Terps won.

#2 TERPS 4, PRINCETON 1

COLLEGE PARK, Md. - No. 2 Maryland was tested by Princeton, but the Tigers could not keep pace as the Terrapins claimed a 4-1 victory. Junior Sarah Scholl recorded a pair of assists, including assisting on the game winner.

The Terps improved to 10-0 on the season and is one of two undefeated teams remaining in the country. They also extended their win streak to 14 games, dating back to last season's NCAA Tournament.

Maryland had just one penalty corner in the game but was executed to perfection. After the push out by senior Janneke van Leeuwen, freshman Katie O'Donnell made the stop to set up junior Susie Rowe, who slammed the ball into the back of the cage, giving the Terrapins a 1-0 lead in the ninth minute of the game.

Princeton (4-3) threatened the lead, but the Terp defense made crucial stops along the way. Maryland added to its advantage, jumping ahead 2-0, in the 25th minute. Looking to create some chaos, Scholl was off balanced and sent a pass into the circle to junior Kim Ziegler. Ziegler took a swing and slapped the ball into the net to score.

The Tigers fought to within 2-1, however, as Kaitlin Donovan found herself open in front of the cage for the easy goal. The score would stand until the halftime break.

In the second half, Maryland was more in control of the tempo. The Terrapins pounced on two scoring opportunities to score twice more. Scholl passed from the baseline behind Princeton's goalkeeper, finding junior Danielle Keeley on the receiving end in the 55th minute.

O'Donnell got back into the act and added another score in the 67th minute. Getting the ball at the top of the circle, she made her way through the defenders, to the baseline and around the goalkeeper for the wide-open tally.

Maryland outshot Princeton, 14-13, and was outcornered, 6-2. However, the Tigers' could not get past the Terrapin backfield, who did not allow a goal on the opportunities.

Sophomore goalkeeper Alicia Grater entered the game in the last 23 minutes without having an opportunity to warm up and made two key saves to keep Princeton off the board. Senior All-American Kathryn Masson made four saves in the game.

#2 TERPS 4, #19 VIRGINIA 0

COLLEGE PARK, Md. - No. 2 Maryland defeated ACC opponent and 19th-ranked Virginia. Leading 1-0 at halftime, the Terrapins turned up the offensive pressure in the second half to clinch the 4-0 victory over the Cavaliers.

The Terps (11-0, 2-0) displayed team work and unselfish play for the second-straight game as four different players scored.

In the fourth minute of the game, sophomore Nicole Muracco put the Terps on the board by knocking in the rebound off of saved penalty corner shot attempt. The goal was Muracco's 10th of the season.

Maryland would not score again until the second half when junior Sarah Scholl dodged the goalie and drove the ball into the center of the open cage for her second tally of the season. Senior Janneke van Leeuwen followed with an unassisted goal of her own in the 49th minute, pushing in a rebound to the back of the cage. A hard shot to the back of the cage by sophomore Ameliet Rischen in the 58th minute rounded out Maryland's scoring.

Virginia (5-5, 0-2) outshot Maryland, 13-10, only the second time this season the Terps have been outshot. Maryland, however, connected on three of its six second-half shots. The Cavaliers took 10 of their 13 attempts in the second period, but goalkeepers senior Kathryn Masson and sophomore Alicia Grater were able to fend off the UVA attack to maintain the shutout. Grater amassed four saves in the final 20 minutes, including three in a one-minute span. Masson also contributed four saves.

Maryland's winning streak stretched to 15 games, dating back to the first round of last year's NCAA Tournament, but another streak came to a halt. O'Donnell came into the contest tallying at least a point in every game this season, but was held to without a goal and an assist this afternoon.

#2 TERPS 3, TEMPLE 1

COLLEGE PARK, Md. - Second-ranked Maryland fought past regional-foe Temple, 3-1, in the Terps' third game of the week. The Terps won their 12th-straight game of the season, tying the program record for the best start to a season set during last year's championship run. The loss brought Temple's five-game winning streak to an end as the Owls fell to 9-4.

Scoreless through the first 21 minutes of play, sophomore Alexis Pappas put the Terps on the board with an unassisted goal off a rebound for her first tally of the year. Junior Susie Rowe followed eight minutes later with sophomore Ameliet Rischen assisting on the goal.

In the 31st minute, Temple's Kasey Ruth and Alli Lokey charged Terrapin goalie Kathryn Masson in a 2-on-1 situation. Lokey dribbled straight on towards the goal, dishing the pass to Ruth who knocked the ball into the right corner of the cage to cut Maryland's lead to 2-1.

The score remained 2-1 until nearly 30 minutes into the second half, but Maryland sophomore Nicole Muracco drove in a goal off of a pass from sophomore Brianna Davies on the baseline.

Junior Sarah Scholl and sophomore Kristina Foster

The Terps outshot the Owls by an astounding 39-9 margin during the contest, as well as, earning 17 penalty corners to Temple's four. In Maryland's last three wins, different Terrapins have contributed to the offense, as no player has scored multiple goals in those games. Temple goalie Erin Hanshue amassed 18 saves in the loss.

#2 TERPS 4, #12 DUKE 2

DURHAM, N.C. - After a 1-1 tie at the end of the first half, second-ranked Maryland scored three second-half goals to get past #12 Duke, 4-2, improving to a school-record 13-0 mark. Freshman Katie O'Donnell paced the Terrapin attack, scoring a goal while dishing out a pair of assists.

Maryland (13-0, 4-0) trailed for the first time all year after Amie Survilla put the Blue Devils (7-6, 1-3) ahead, 1-0, in the sixth minute of the game. Duke held onto that lead until late in the half. Maryland tied the score in the 32nd minute on a 2-on-1 breakaway as O'Donnell passed off to sophomore Nicole Muracco in the circle for Maryland's first goal of the game.

The Terps came out in the second half firing away, peppering DU goalkeeper Caitlin Williams with four shots in the first five minutes. Williams stopped three while the Terps' fourth shot went wide. Not giving up, the Terrapins continued to attack. At 43:59, senior Janneke van Leeuwen netted a pass from O'Donnell to give the Terps a 2-1 advantage.

Duke was awarded a stroke, however, in the 52nd minute and Survilla converted on the attempt to even up the score again, 2-2.

But less than a minute later, O'Donnell put the Terps up, 3-2, and Maryland never looked back. Junior Ellen Ott slammed in an insurance goal off the penalty corner at 54:20, for the 4-2 advantage.

Down the stretch, the Terps limited Duke to just two shot attempts, which senior Kathryn Masson made saves on both to keep the Blue Devils at bay.

The Terps outshot and outcornered the Blue Devils, 17-8 and 9-2, respectively. Duke goalkeeper Williams made seven saves, while Masson finished with two.

Maryland's 13-0 record also extends its win streak to 17 games, dating back to the first round of the 2006 NCAA Tournament.

#2 TERPS 3, #14 BOSTON UNIVERSITY 1

COLLEGE PARK, Md. - Second-ranked Maryland topped No. 14 Boston University, 3-1. Coming off of Saturday's 4-2 road win against Duke, the Terps returned home to earn its 18th-consecutive victory dating back to last season and improved to 14-0 in front of a school-record 1,784 fans. The Terriers' record fell to 10-4.

Prior to the start the game, Maryland head coach Missy Meharg was honored for her 20 years on the Terrapin bench. She ranks among the top 20 winningest coaches in NCAA field hockey history.

Freshman Katie O'Donnell put the Terps on the board in the sixth minute, dodging past Boston University's goalie Kim Katsuk and slamming a hard shot into the back, left corner of the cage.

BU returned the favor with 18:29 elapsed as Gabby Hajjar tapped in a goal off of a pass into the circle by Holly Wiles. The score would stand at 1-1 for the remainder of the first half.

Less than five minutes into the second period, sophomore Alexis Pappas smacked a shot into the circle that junior Sarah Scholl deflected past the goalie to break the tie, 2-1. Pappas would assist on another goal in the 56th minute, this time to senior Janneke van Leeuwen with a pass off the goalie's pads after a rebound.

Senior Kathryn Masson saved four shots for the Terps in a full-game effort, including a diving save in the 65th minute to stop a BU breakaway by Hayley Hamada. Katsuk amassed eight saves in the cage for the Terriers. Meanwhile, Pappas' two assists in the game tied a career high.

Freshman Katie O'Donnell and sophomore Nicole Muracco celebrate after a goal. Maryland ranked third in the nation in scoring.

The Terps' win extends the record for best start to a season to 14 games. The record crowd of 1,784 broke the program's attendance mark previously set earlier this season against Wake Forest on Sept. 22 when 1,734 fans were in attendance to watch the Terps' 3-2 victory.

#2 TERPS 4, #10 OLD DOMINION 1

COLLEGE PARK, Md. - Second-ranked Maryland turned up the pressure late in the game to put away No. 10 Old Dominion, 4-1. With the win, the Terrapins improved to 15-0 and extended their streak to 19-consecutive wins dating back to the first round of last year's NCAA Tournament. Both streaks are school records.

Just two minutes into the contest, Hanna Warren put Old Dominion (8-6) on the board with a penalty-corner goal assisted by Shannon Mobley. The early Monarch lead marked only the second time the Terps trailed all season.

Maryland evened the score in the 16th minute, as junior Susie Rowe dished a hard pass from the top of the circle to senior Janneke van Leeuwen on the end line to the left of the goal. Van Leeuwen executed a hard flick over the goalkeeper for the score.

The tie stood until the 54th minute when junior Ellen Ott smacked a hard drive into the back of the cage on a direct penalty corner shot.

With less than five minutes remaining on the clock, freshman Katie O'Donnell exploded on offense, knocking in two goals in a one-minute span to clinch the win. In nearly identical scenarios, O'Donnell drove in unassisted tallies off rebounds to notch her 15th and 16th goals of the season. A blocked shot by Rowe and a saved shot by sophomore Brianna Davies provided the fuel for O'Donnell's goals.

Maryland outshot Old Dominion in the match-up, 20-2, and outcornered the Lady Monarchs, 5-2. In goal for ODU, Kelly Driscoll made 10 saves in 70 minutes.

The Terps' win improves their record for best start to a season to 15 games. Maryland broke the previous record of 12-0 in its win at Duke.

#2 TERPS 7, DELAWARE 0

COLLEGE PARK, Md. - Senior Janneke van Leeuwen scored three goals and assisted on two others to lead the second-ranked Terrapins to a 7-0 rout of Delaware. It was the seventh shutout of the season for the Terps.

Freshman Katie O'Donnell scored the deciding goal just 1:03 into the game. The game remained close until just before the end of the first half when junior Susie Rowe gave the Terrapins a 2-0 lead. It was the first of two goals for the 2006 All-American.

Maryland (16-0) broke the game wide open in the second period. Van Leeuwen went on a tear, having a hand in all five of the Terps' second-half tallies. She gave the team a three-goal cushion in the 50th minute on a penalty corner. In the 53rd minute, she assisted on junior Ellen Ott's penalty-corner goal.

Almost three minutes after that, van Leeuwen scored again, before assisting on the Terps' sixth goal of the game, also on a penalty corner. Van Leeuwen capped the scoring as Ott assisted on her career-high third goal of the afternoon.

On the other end of the field. the defense also had an outstanding performance, posting its seventh shutout of the season. The Terps also limited Delaware, who fell to 9-6 on the season, to just one shot for the game.

Maryland outshot the Blue Hens, 25-1, and outcornered them, 18-2.

Van Leeuwen collected a career-high eight points. The two assists also upped her career total to 49 in her four seasons, which moves her into a tie for fourth all-time.

#1 NORTH CAROLINA 3, #2 TERPS 0

CHAPEL HILL, N.C. - In the battle of the unbeatens, No. 1 North Carolina prevailed over No. 2 Maryland, 3-0. The loss also snapped a 20-game Terrapin win streak, which dated back to the first round of the 2006 NCAA Tournament. All-American goalkeeper Kathryn Masson made nine saves in the loss.

Both teams entered the game with a 16-0 record and were looking to clinch the ACC regular season title and the top seed in the upcoming ACC Tournament. Neither team relented, as the score remained scoreless until the 56th minute of the game. North Carolina (17-0, 5-0) made several threats, attempting 23 total shots for the game, 14 coming in the first half. But Maryland's Masson kept the Tar Heels at bay, turning away six shots in the opening period.

The battle continued well into the second half until UNC's Alli Tanner's shot from the left side made its way past Masson, breaking the stalemate. About 12 minutes later, Katelyn Falgowski added a second tally to make the score 2-0. Jesse Gey then sealed the win with North Carolina's third goal with just under two minutes left.

While Maryland's (16-1, 4-1) defense, which is ranked in the top five in the nation, did a solid job of keeping the No. 1 offense in the nation off the board for nearly 56 minutes, the UNC defense, also ranked in the top five, shutout the Terps in the category of shots and penalty corners. The Terps also kept the Heels from converting on any of their 10 penalty corners.

#2 TERPS 5, VILLANOVA 1

COLLEGE PARK, Md. - Second-ranked Maryland handily defeated Villanova, 5-1, in the final regular-season game for the Terps.

"I'm really proud of this team," said 20th-year Maryland head coach Missy Meharg. "The leadership from the seniors this season has been exceptional. To have a 17-1 regular season record is really a tribute to their character."

Senior Janneke van Leeuwen shined in her final regular-season home game as a Terp, scoring Maryland's first two tallies. In the 10th minute, van Leeuwen netted a shot from the end line off of a successful penalty corner play with the assist coming from junior Ellen Ott.

Villanova's high scorer Lauren Wuzzardo retaliated three minutes later, driving in an unassisted goal from the top of the circle, equalizing the score, 1-1. But it did not take long for the Terps to reclaim the lead.

Van Leeuwen went on to flick in an unassisted goal in the 15th minute, stepping in bounds on the penalty corner push out, putting the Terps up 2-1.

The score stood until the second half, when Ott and junior Susie Rowe put on an offensive show. Rowe assisted Ott in the 41st minute and followed up with a hard slap shot from the top of the circle for a goal of her own at 48:58. Ott clinched the win with 10 minutes left on the clock, knocking in a shot on a pass from freshman Katie O'Donnell.

Also playing in her final regular-season home game, senior goalkeeper Kathryn Masson ended the game with four saves in less than 58 minutes of playing time, making a couple of dramatic saves to keep the Wildcats off the scoreboard. Fellow senior Kim Ziegler was also recognized for Senior Night, making her first start of the season.

With the win, the 2007 seniors picked up their 82nd career victory, putting them second at Maryland among the senior classes, behind only last year's 83-win senior class.

#3 WAKE FOREST 2, #2 TERPS 1
ACC TOURNAMENT

NEWTON, Mass. - Third-ranked Wake Forest used a late goal to upset second-ranked Maryland, 2-1, in the semifinals of the ACC Tournament. Sophomore Nicole Muracco scored the Terps' only goal of the game, while senior goalkeeper Kathryn Masson made five saves.

Maryland took control of the game early on, striking first when the league's Offensive Player of the Year freshman Katie O'Donnell fed a pass to Muracco in front of the goal for a 1-0 lead.

The Deacons, however, slowly began to seize the momentum, which had been primarily in the Terps' favor. Maryland held a 1-0 lead until WF's Aileen Davis notted the game at 1-1, knocking in a pass from Minou Gimbere at 46:10.

The teams battles back and forth for the next 20 minutes. Masson made a save on a Wake Forest shot and, on the ensuing scramble, Chelsea Cipriani punched in the deciding goal with just over a minute remaining in the game.

Masson's five saves all came at crucial moments, including two diving stops. Her counterpart in the Wake Forest cage had three stops.

The loss is only the second for Maryland, who falls to 17-2 on the season. WFU improves to 14-4 and moved on to the championship game.

#2 TERPS 5, #10 OLD DOMINION 0
NCAA TOURNAMENT

COLLEGE PARK, Md. - Second-seeded Maryland solidly defeated No. 10 Old Dominion, 5-0, to advance to the second round of the NCAA Tournament. The Terps received scoring from five different players, and goalkeepers senior Kathryn Masson and junior Alicia Grater combined efforts for 10 saves and the shutout.

The game was evenly matched in the first half, with the only goal coming from Maryland sophomore Nicole Muracco at the three-minute mark. On a dish from junior Sarah Scholl, Muracco executed a dodge to get Old Dominion goalie Kelly Driscoll leaning, and slammed the ball into the right side of the cage.

The 1-0 score would stand until halftime. Maryland junior Ellen Ott broke open a Terps' scoring spree in the second half with a penalty corner deflection for a goal at 37:16, assisted by junior Susie Rowe. Rowe got on the board again two minutes later with a successful penalty stroke, faking Driscoll to the left and flicking to the right center of the cage.

The Terps (18-2) were in scoring action again in the 41st minute when sophomore Alexis Pappas scored off of a pass into the circle by Katie O'Donnell. O'Donnell would also cap off Maryland's scoring in the 47th minute with an unassisted breakaway goal, dodging past Driscoll with a hard pull to the left and scoring in the wide open cage.

Masson had a stellar performance in the cage for the Terps, making eight saves and holding Old Dominion (12-10) scoreless in the first 53:16 of play. Grater kept the Lady Monarchs off the board for the remainder of the game with two saves. For Old Dominion, Driscoll picked up five saves in the losing effort.

The win was the Terrapins' third this season against the Lady Monarchs, previously defeating Old Dominion by identical scores of 4-1 on Aug. 31 and Oct. 12 in a home-and-home series.

#9 PENN STATE 1, #2 TERPS 0
NCAA TOURNAMENT

COLLEGE PARK, Md. - Second-seeded Maryland was upset in the second round of the NCAA Tournament, falling to No. 9 Penn State, 1-0. The Terps end the season with an 18-3 record overall.

The game was scoreless until the 22-minute mark when Penn State's Shaun Banta crossed the ball in front of the goal from the right end line. Britney Long was in perfect position on the right side of the cage to put her stick on it divert it into the goal.

In the cage, Maryland All-American Kathryn Masson saved four shouts in the game effort. PSU's Jen Beaumont had nine saves while holding the Terps scoreless. The Terps actually outshot the Nittany Lions 14-6, including nine shots in the second half. With Penn State's defense hunkered down close to the goal, Maryland had a difficult time breaking free for open looks.

The Terps also outcornered Penn State, 6-2, but were unable to convert the opportunities.

"We will miss the three seniors tremendously," said Meharg. "The big positive for the future is that there is a tremendous amount of character, some great hockey players, and women who have experienced being in a championship situation returning to this team. They know what we stand for and are willing to work hard."

Rachel Hiskins holds the school record for points in a game with 11.

The 1999 Terps scored a record 127 goals en route to a school-record 24 wins and the program's third national championship.

Carissa Messimer is one of five players to have dished out four assists in a game.

The 1987 national champion Terps visited the White House and President Ronald Reagan. Maryland was the first field hockey championship team to ever visit the White House.

The 2005 Terps won the program's fourth national championship and visited the White House and President George W. Bush (left). Emily Beach with President Bush (above).

THE UNIVERSITY OF MARYLAND

DEEP ROOTS, BROAD IMPACT

Charles Benedict Calvert founded the Maryland Agricultural College in 1856 with the goal of creating a school that would offer outstanding practical knowledge to him and his neighbors and be "an institution superior to any other."

One hundred and fifty years later, the University of Maryland has blossomed from its roots as the state's first agricultural college and one of America's original land grant institutions into a model of the modern research university. It is the state's greatest asset for its economic development and its future, and has made its mark in the nation and the world.

Calvert would be astounded by the depth and breadth of research activities, innovative educational programs, and the single-minded pursuit of excellence that are part of the University of Maryland today. Maryland is ranked 18th among the nation's top public research universities by U.S. News & World Report, with 31 academic programs in the Top 10 and 86 in the Top 25. It is also ranked No. 37th in the world, according to the Institute of Higher Education at at Shanghai's Jiao Tong University.

Maryland is the state's premier center of research and graduate education and the public institution of choice for undergraduate students of exceptional ability and promise. The faculty includes four Nobel laureates, six Pulitzer Prize winners, a three-time Emmy Award winner, more than 40 members of national academies and scores of Fulbright scholars. The university focuses great attention on the highest academic standards, affordability for all qualified students, and a President's Promise program that guarantees opportunity for extraordinary extracurricular and professional experiences for each student.

It has earned a national reputation for its enriched educational experiences for undergraduates, including such widely imitated living/learning programs as College Park Scholars; Gemstone, a unique program that brings teams of students together from across disciplines to tackle specific technical problems; and the Hinman CEO Entrepreneurship Program, sponsored jointly by the A. James Clark School of Engineering and the Robert H. Smith School of Business, and widely recognized as the most successful student entrepreneurship program in the nation.

These programs are guided by outstanding faculty whose accomplishments in research abound. Whether the issue is Mideast peace, cutting-edge research in nanoscience, homeland security or bioscience advances, Maryland faculty are selected for national leadership and are making news. Many recent major faculty initiatives receiving significant external support strengthen our homeland security endeavors—centers for research on agrosecurity and emergency management; intermodal freight transportation security; behavioral and social analyses of terrorism and responses to terrorism; astrophysics and advanced world climate and weather prediction; and a national Center for Advanced Study of Language.

In addition to its academic prowess, Maryland is also home to the Terrapins, whose athletic achievements are a perennial source of pride for nearly 250,000 alumni and residents of the state. In 2005-2006, the Terrapins brought home national championships in four sports — men's soccer, field hockey, competitive cheer and women's basketball — more than any university in the nation.

Whether aiming for the skies or pioneering journalism programs in China, the University of Maryland is surging ahead. Building on the work of outstanding faculty and students, and with the loyal support of alumni and friends, Maryland is moving aggressively and confidently to a decade that will shine brighter than any other in its history.

NINTH YEAR

In September 1998, C. D. (Dan) Mote, Jr. began his tenure as President of the University of Maryland and Glenn L. Martin Institute Professor of Engineering. He was recruited to lead the University of Maryland to national eminence under a mandate by the state. Since assuming the presidency, he has encouraged an environment of excellence across the University and given new impetus to the momentum generated by a talented faculty and student body. Under his leadership, academic programs have flourished. In 2005, the University was ranked 18th among public research universities, up from 30th in 1998. President Mote has emphasized broad access to the university's model, enriched undergraduate curriculum programs and launched the Baltimore Incentive Awards Program to recruit and provide full support to high school students of outstanding potential who have overcome extraordinary adversity during their lives.

He has spurred the university to lead the state in the development of its high-tech economy, especially in the information and communication, bioscience and biotechnology, and nano-technology sectors. President Mote has greatly expanded the university's partnerships with corporate and federal laboratories and successfully negotiated to bring to the College Park area the first Science Research Park sponsored by the People's Republic of China. Under his leadership, the University has established a research park, The University of Maryland Enterprise Campus, M-Square, located on a 115-acre site adjacent to the University of Maryland/College Park Metro with 3 million square feet of development potential. Among its first tenants are the Center for Advanced Study of Language, a joint venture of the University and Department of Defense, and the National Oceanic and Atmospheric Administration's new World Weather and Climate Prediction Center.

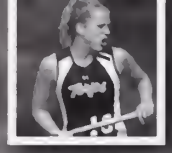
During President Mote's second year in office, the University began the largest building boom in its history, with more than $100 million in new projects breaking ground that year. New facilities address every aspect of university life, from the arts to recreation to classrooms and laboratories, and, in creative partnership with the private sector, new residential facilities. Highlights of the construction activity include the stunning Clarice Smith Performing Arts Center; the Comcast Center, a state of the art sports complex; a high tech research greenhouse; and new classrooms for chemistry, computer science, business and engineering. President Mote also led the development of a new Facilities Master Plan for development in the next 20 years, which is noted for its emphasis on environmental stewardship.

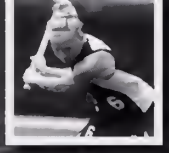
Dr. Mote is a leader in the national dialogue on higher education and his analyses of shifting funding models have been featured in local and national media. He has testified on major educational issues before Congress, representing the University and higher education associations on the problem of visa barriers for international students and scholars and on deemed export control issues. He has been asked to serve on a high level National Academies Committee appointed at the request of the Senate Energy Subcommittee of the Senate Energy and Natural Resources Committee to identify challenges to United States leadership in key areas of science and technology and to be a member of the Leadership Council of the National Innovation Initiative, an activity of the Council on Competitiveness. He has served as vice chair of the Department of Defense Basic Research Committee, and is a member of the Council of the National Academy of Engineering. In 2004-2005, he served as President of the Atlantic Coast Conference. In its last ranking in 2002, "Washington Business Forward" magazine counted him among the top 20 most influential leaders in the region.

Prior to assuming the Presidency at Maryland, Dr. Mote served on the University of California, Berkeley faculty for 31 years. From 1991 to 1998, he was Vice Chancellor at Berkeley, held an endowed chair in Mechanical Systems and was President of the UC Berkeley Foundation. He led a comprehensive capital campaign for Berkeley that raised $1.4 B. He earlier served as chair of Berkeley's Department of Mechanical Engineering and led the department to its number one ranking in the National Research Council review of graduate program effectiveness.

Dr. Mote's research lies in dynamic systems and biomechanics. Internationally recognized for his research on the dynamics of gyroscopic systems and the biomechanics of snow skiing, he has produced more than 300 publications, holds patents in the U.S., Norway, Finland and Sweden, and has mentored 56 Ph.D. students. He received a B.S., M.S. and Ph.D. in mechanical engineering from the University of California, Berkeley. President Mote has received numerous awards and honors, including the Humboldt Prize awarded by the Federal Republic of Germany. He is a recipient of the Berkeley Citation, an award from the University of California-Berkeley similar to the honorary doctorate, and was named Distinguished Engineering Alumnus. He has received two honorary doctorates. He is a member of the U.S. National Academy of Engineering and serves on its Council, and is a member of the American Academy of Arts and Sciences. He was elected to Honorary Membership in the ASME International, its most distinguished recognition, and is a Fellow of the International Academy of Wood Science, the Acoustical Society of America, and the American Association for the Advancement of Science. In Spring 2005, he was named recipient of the 2005 J. P. Den Hartog award by the ASME International Technical Committee on Vibration and Sound to honor his lifelong contribution to the teaching and/or practice of vibration engineering. In Fall 2005, he received the 2005 Founders Award from the National Academy of Engineering in recognition of his comprehensive body of work on the dynamics of moving flexible structures and for leadership in academia.

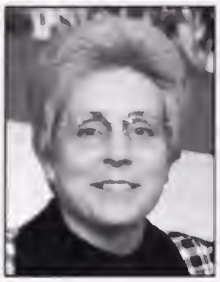
He and his wife of over 40 years, Patricia Mote, have two married children, Melissa and Adam, and four grandchildren. Patsy Mote has continued her strong support of the arts and is spokesperson for the Clarice Smith Performing Arts Center and a member of Prince George's County Arts Commission.





DEBORAH A. YOW

DIRECTOR OF ATHLETICS • 15TH YEAR AT MARYLAND



Deborah A. Yow is in the 15th year of her outstanding tenure as director of athletics at the University of Maryland, a tenure that has seen unprecedented success and achievement in Maryland athletics. In Yow's 14-plus years at Maryland, the Terrapins have won a remarkable 16 national championships and graduated student-athletes at an enviable rate as Maryland athletics has soared to sustained new heights among the nation's elite intercollegiate athletic programs.

The comprehensive success of Terrapin athletics under Debbie Yow's leadership is a clear and compelling testimony of her values of excellence, teamwork and accountability.

Likewise, her prior election to the presidency of the National Association of Collegiate Directors of Athletics is an indication of the wide respect with which she is regarded among its 6,100 members representing 1,600 colleges and universities in the U.S. and Canada. She serves as the current President of the national Division I-A Athletic Directors Association and is a member of the Board of Directors of the National Football Foundation, as well as the Board of Directors of USA Football and the NCAA Division I Men's Basketball Academic Enhancement Committee.

She has been honored by Street and Smith's Sports Business Journal as one of the 20 most influential people in intercollegiate athletics, was cited in The Chronicle of Higher Education in October 2007 as one of the "Ten Most Powerful People in College Athletics/The Builder" and she has received the Carl Maddox Sport Management Award presented by the United States Sports Academy for excellence in athletics administration.

Dr. Yow was selected to serve on the U.S. Department of Education's Commission on Opportunities in Athletics to review the status of Federal Title IX regulations. She served as the chair of the Atlantic Coast Conference Committee on Television. The committee is charged with overseeing the league's TV contracts and dealing with issues related to television, including multi-year ACC football and basketball contracts with ABC, ESPN, ESPN2 and syndication entities.

Additionally, she has represented intercollegiate athletics with presentations in a number of prominent settings such as the Harvard University School of Law conference on "Shaping the Future of Collegiate Athletics" and the Street and Smith's Sports Business Journal "National Forum on the Direction of Intercollegiate Athletics" in New York.

Yow, who has served on the NCAA Management Council and the NCAA Division I Budget Committee, is a strong and steady voice on behalf of intercollegiate athletics in America.

Since taking over as AD at Maryland in 1994, she and her staff have:

- Transformed Terrapin athletics into a responsive, goal-oriented organization with 27 sports and more than 70(student-athletes.
- Balanced all 14 of the department's annual budgets (none of the budgets were balanced in the 10 years prior to her arrival). The budget now approaches $60 million annually and the $51 million debt which her administration inheritec has been reduced to $7.6 million.
- Greatly enhanced the academic support services providec for student-athletes, with an enviable exhausted eligibility graduation rate of approximately 85 percent for student-athletes at Maryland. Academic outcomes and student-athlete welfare have received consistent and focused attention.
- Led the Terrapins to a national all-sports ranking in the upper 7 percent of all NCAA Division I institutions.
- Significantly expanded marketing and fund-raising efforts on behalf of Terrapin athletics. As a result, private gifts to athletics have increased over 350 percent and corporate sponsorship revenues have increased by over 300 percent during her tenure at Maryland.
- Continued to dramatically improve venues and facilities for the department's 27 teams. The 18,000-seat Comcast Center for men's and women's basketball and other sports that use the facility is a prime example of the remarkable $250 million upgrade of athletic facilities.
- Implemented a strategic management model.
- Developed a comprehensive Internet strategy with management, marketing and fund-raising applications.

Street & Smith's Sports Business Journal Named Deborah A. Yow One Of The 20 Most Influential People In College Athletics.

Yow congratulates one of the members of the Maryland Competitive Cheer team that won the 2006 NCA Division I National Championship.

- Significantly improved customer care in every area of Maryland athletics.

The most recent achievements of Maryland athletics are exceptional:

- Maryland captured a remarkable seven national championships during the past three seasons.
- In the recent academic year, the Terrapins achieved the highest student-athlete graduation rate in the history of Maryland athletics and had the highest graduation rate of any public institution in the Atlantic Coast Conference.
- Fundraising for Maryland athletics set a historic mark of $24.7 million in 2006-07.
- Maryland was selected by U.S. News & World Report and Sports Illustrated as one of the Top 20 athletic programs in the nation (for overall quality and competitive excellence).
- In 2005-06, Maryland Athletics won the inaugural PRISM Award as the best-managed Division I collegiate athletics program in the nation.
- Maryland was ranked as the sixth-finest athletic program in the nation by the Center for the Study of Intercollegiate Athletics, based on comprehensive criteria such as graduation rates, financial efficiency, equity effectiveness and competitive excellence.
- In men's basketball, the Terps won the Atlantic Coast Conference title over Duke in the championship game in 2004 and won the NCAA National Championship in 2002. Under Coach Gary Williams, the men's basketball team appeared in 11 consecutive NCAA Tournaments and in 12 of the last 15 tournaments.
- Women's basketball won the 2006 NCAA National Championship under head coach Brenda Frese, completing an amazing turnaround that saw the program go from a 10-18 record to a National Championship in four seasons.
- In football, the Terps won the 2001 Atlantic Coast Conference championship and played in the 2002 Orange Bowl, followed that with an 11-win season and a 30-3 victory over the University of Tennessee in the Peach Bowl, again followed by a 10-win season and a 41-7 win over West Virginia in the Gator Bowl on New Year's Day 2004. In the 2006 season, Maryland returned to the bowl scene, where the Terps defeated Purdue, 24-7, in the Champs Sports Bowl, and in 2007 was selected to play Oregon State in the Emerald Bowl in San Francisco. Graduation rates in football are exemplary and the program was recently recognized by the American Football Coaches Association for its academic excellence under Coach Ralph Friedgen.
- Additionally, Maryland is one of only three universities in the nation to win National Championships in men's basketball, women's basketball and football. Stanford and UCLA are the other NCAA Division I institutions to achieve that mark.
- Set an ACC single-game record for women's basketball attendance by drawing 17,950 to a regular-season game at Comcast Center and led the ACC in season attendance.

Dr. Yow with Boomer Esiason (left), Bonnie Bernstein (center) and Steve Francis (right).

- Hired Dave Cottle, the sixth-winningest active men's lacrosse coach in the U.S., who guided his team to the NCAA Final Four in three of his first four seasons.
- Field hockey earned National Championships in 2005-06 and in 2006-07, and has become a perennial participant in the Final Four in that sport.
- In women's lacrosse, hired Cathy Reese, who was named the 2007 ACC Coach of the Year in her first season as coach of the Terps.
- Men's soccer has appeared in four Final Fours in the past six years and won the NCAA National Championship.
- Football facilities have been significantly enhanced with team house, stadium and practice field upgrades. The Football Academic Center was the first improvement, as it took priority over all other initiatives.
- In 2006-07, 16 Maryland teams competed in postseason play.
- The productivity, morale, and the competitive and academic achievement of Terrapin athletics are exceptional and continue to gain momentum.

Regarding the many achievements of Terrapin athletics over the past 14 years, Yow says, "We are pleased, but we are not satisfied... our vision is to be one of the Top 5 programs in the nation consistently... we see no reason to settle for less."

Yow is known for her goal-oriented and proactive management style. She consistently inspires and challenges those around her to "raise our sights and sharpen our tools... to work hard and work smart... to recognize that our only limitations are those that we place upon ourselves."

As a manager and a leader, she clearly models these principles. She is the only known current AD in NCAA Division I who has hired both the National Coach of the Year in football (while at Maryland) and the National Coach of the Year in men's basketball (while at Saint Louis University). In 2002, she also brought to the University of Maryland Brenda Frese, who at that time was the National Coach of the Year in women's basketball. Four years later, Frese led the Terrapins to the NCAA National Championship at the Women's Final Four in Boston.

Dr. Yow is known as "a coach's A.D.," while also being highly organized and a strategic and proactive leader and administrator. Quite simply, Debbie Yow personifies the relational and management dynamics that are necessary to be an excellent administrator and leader.

A successful former basketball coach, she moved into athletics administration at the University of Florida and the University of North Carolina, Greensboro, followed by a successful tenure as A.D. at Saint Louis University.

She has authored numerous articles and books on athletics management and human behavior, and is a respected leader in intercollegiate athletics in the United States. She holds a bachelor's degree from Elon University, a masters degree from Liberty University and a doctorate (honorus causa) from the U.S. Sports Academy and an honorary doctorate for career achievement from Elon University.

Summing up the entire Maryland athletics program, our athletics director recently stated, "We have the finest student-athletes, coaches, support staff and administrative team in America. It is because of their courage, hard work and cooperative spirit that we now have a strong, viable athletic program. I am immensely proud of each of them. I am equally proud of our Terrapin fans who buy tickets, our Terrapin Club members who faithfully support the Maryland athletic program with their donations for scholarships, and the M Club members who serve and give liberally. We are also blessed with a terrific President, Dr. Dan Mote, who has fostered a mindset of excellence across our institution. He is a strong and balanced advocate for what he calls 'the three A's of the University -- Academics, the Arts and Athletics'. We have a great Terrapin family. That's the foundation for all of our success... and the basis for our bright future. It's a great time to be a Terp."

ACADEMIC SUPPORT AND CAREER DEVELOPMENT

The University of Maryland is committed to providing the highest quality education to all of its students. The Department of Intercollegiate Athletics strives to provide student-athletes excellent opportunities to participate in an intercollegiate athletics program of the highest quality, with the result that their athletics participation becomes an integral and valued component of their total educational experience at the university.

Terrapin student-athletes will find that the same hard work and discipline that has earned them success in athletics competition is also required in the classroom. Balancing the significant time demands and responsibilities required to be a successful student-athlete at the highest collegiate level is no small task. Therefore, as a result of their commitment to representing the university through athletics, Terrapin student-athletes are able to utilize support programs designed to meet their specific needs.

Led by associate athletics director Anton Goff, the mission of the Academic Support and Career Development Unit (ASCDU) is to provide quality developmental programs and need-based services that will enhance academic progress, facilitate career development, and encourage the psychosocial growth of all UM student-athletes. Don Pearman works with the Maryland field hockey team.

The Gossett Academic Support and Career Development Center for Terrapin student-athletes, named for long-time Terp supporters Barry and Mary Gossett, is located in the Comcast Center. It features a study center that includes 25 desktop computers, a tutoring center, a classroom, a CHAMPS/Life Skills resource room and individual offices for professional academic counselors, a director of enrichment programs, an assistant program coordinator and a graduate assistant. In addition, a new academic wing was added to the Gossett football team house recently. It features offices for two counselors, a program coordinator and three learning specialists; as well as a quiet study area, 29-desk computer lab, classroom, tutor rooms and classroom/lab for the individualized learning program.

Academic courses, programs and services offered by ASCDU include the following:

- Student-athlete orientation
- Academic counseling
- NCAA academic eligibility monitoring
- Academic enrichment and career development presentations and workshops
- Accredited tutorial support
- Individualized learning program
- EDCP 108-K (College learning strategies and skills)
- EDCP 108-M (Math learning strategies and skills)
- UNIV 100 (First-year transitions to the university)

MARYLAND GAMEPLAN

The Maryland Gameplan is intended to assist graduating Terrapin student-athletes as they begin the job search process. It is distributed to more than 500 corporations and businesses across the country, in addition to being featured on the M Club website. Prospective employers are introduced to our graduating student-athletes with resume information relative to academic, career and personal achievements. The Maryland Gameplan directory is produced annually in collaboration with the M Club.

CAREER NETWORKING NIGHT

Because career development is an ongoing process, ASCDU provides a variety of programs for student-athletes throughout the year. Professional assistance with resume- writing, interviewing skills, graduate school search and job search is readily available to all student-athletes. During the spring semester ASCDU hosts the Career Networking Night, where student-athletes can learn about career interests and career planning. Unlike typical "job fairs," the purpose of this program is to allow student-athletes to explore multiple career opportunities by speaking directly to individuals in their chosen areas of interest. Employers at the Career Networking Night recognize the marketable qualities student-athletes have gained through athletic participation. Student-athletes learn about opportunities for internships and full-time jobs.

STUDENT-ATHLETE ADVISORY COMMITTEE

The Student-Athlete Advisory Committee (S.A.A.C.) plays an important role in the Department of Intercollegiate Athletics. It consists of two representatives from each varsity sport and meets on a regular basis with representatives from the athletic administration. The S.A.A.C. mission is to enhance the total student-athlete experience by developing leadership skills, promoting student-athlete welfare and fostering a positive student-athlete image on the Maryland campus, local area and nationally.

CHAMPS/LIFE SKILLS PROGRAMS

ASCDU houses the NCAA's (National Collegiate Athletic Association) CHAMPS/Life Skills Program. The ASCDU staff, in collaboration with various other Department of Intercollegiate Athletics' units and campus resources, strives to provide a systematic personal development program designed to reach each student-athlete based on his or her individual needs. The focus of the program is on the individual academically, athletically and emotionally, and on the changing needs and skills of that individual in the years during college and after graduation. The menu of presentations, workshops and seminars is a comprehensive and balanced system of "life learning" programs promoted for use by each varsity sport team.

Highlights of the CHAMPS/Life Skills Programs:

- Support efforts of every student-athlete toward intellectual development and graduation
- Use athletics as preparation for success in life
- Meet the changing needs of student-athletes
- Promote respect for diversity among student-athletes
- Enhance interpersonal relationships in the lives of student-athletes
- Assist student-athletes in building positive self-esteem
- Enable student-athletes to make meaningful contributions to their communities
- Promote ownership by the student-athletes of their academic, athletic, personal and social responsibilities
- Enhance partnerships between the NCAA, member institutions and their communities for the purpose of education
- Encourage the development of leadership skills

CHAMPS/LIFE SKILLS PROGRAMS COMMITMENT STATEMENTS

Commitment to Academic Excellence

To support the academic progress of the student-athlete toward intellectual development and graduation.

Commitment to Athletic Excellence

To build philosophical foundations for the development of athletic programs that are broad-based, equitable and dedicated to the well-being of the student-athlete.

Commitment to Personal Development

To support the development of a well-balanced lifestyle for student-athletes, encouraging emotional well-being, personal growth and decision-making skills.

Commitment to Career Development

To encourage the student-athlete to develop and pursue career and life goals.

Commitment to Service

To engage student-athletes in service to his/her campus and surrounding communities.

ACADEMIC SUPPORT FOR RETURNING ATHLETES PROGRAM

The Academic Support for Returning Athletes Program was created in 1986 to support the academic efforts of former varsity student-athletes at the University of Maryland, College Park. In 1989, ASRAP was assigned by the President's Office to the Academic Achievements Program and enrolled 40 students that year. As a member of the National Consortium for Academics and Sports (NCAS), the University of Maryland is committed to assisting its former athletes with degree completion. A key component of the program is community outreach. Each returning student completes a "workship" that allows the cost of tuition and fees to be exchanged for community services with youth. In 2002, ASRAP moved into the ASCDU.

FIELD HOCKEY SUPERVISOR

MICHAEL LIPITZ

SENIOR ASSOCIATE ATHLETICS DIRECTOR

Michael Lipitz is in his ninth year with the University of Maryland and his second as senior associate athletics director for varsity sports. He worked for Maryland Athletics in a senior management role from 1999 through 2006, before serving as Chief Operating Officer of the Orange Bowl Committee for the 2007 FedEx Orange Bowl in Miami, Florida.

Lipitz supervises the Terps' women's basketball, men's lacrosse, field hockey, volleyball, gymnastics, and men's and women's swimming and diving programs. He works closely with the Chief of Staff on internal operations and special initiatives. He also serves as the department's liaison to the University's Legal Office and Office of Student Conduct.

Lipitz graduated from the University of Maryland with a degree in government and politics and dual concentrations in English and political leadership. He was a four-year varsity starter and two-year co-captain on the men's tennis team. Before returning to work at his alma mater, Lipitz earned his law degree from Villanova University.

HOME OF THE TERRAPINS

BALTIMORE

So much, so close... It's all here beyond the University of Maryland campus. City lights, history, sparkling waterfronts, monumental landscapes, jazz, film festivals, marches and demonstrations, shopping, professional sports, regattas on the Chesapeake Bay. Not just one city, but three. Not just any city, but the nation's capital, a major port city, and the state capital of Maryland.... Home of the Terrapins!
